

Study in Beautiful Okinawa

AT THE

University of the Ryukyus

Spring 2015 Semester OR 2015-2016 Academic Year

UHM exchange student Megan Martin (right) at the National Theatre Okinawa

Do you enjoy learning Japanese?

Do you want to learn about Okinawa and Okinawan culture?

Take the next step and study at the University of the Ryukyus in Naha, Japan.

See the UHM-University of the Ryukyus Student Exchange Facebook page:

www.facebook.com/uhm.ryudai.exchange

Two Study Options at the Univ. of the Ryukyus:

URSEP: www.r-center.u-ryukyu.ac.jp/article/1/2/8/en

STRP: www.r-center.u-ryukyu.ac.jp/article/1/2/9/en

Interested in applying?

1. Submit your application to the Mānoa International Exchange Program by February 1, 2015 (or ASAP for the spring 2015 semester). http://manoa.hawaii.edu/mix/outbound\_students/index.html
2. After you are accepted by MIX, you will then fill out the University of the Ryukyus student-exchange application (either URSEP or STRP). JASSO Scholarships are available for eligible students.

Brochures about the University of the Ryukyus Student Exchange program are available at the Center for Okinawa Studies (Moore 316) or the Center for Japanese Studies (Moore 216). If you have questions, make an appointment to see: Dr. Gay Satsuma, CJS Associate Director, at 956-2664 or email gay@hawaii.edu.

Minimum qualifications:

1. Full-time student at UHM
2. Excellent academic record